Invest in Glasgow

The complex blend of style, history, culture and shopping has placed Glasgow at the pinnacle of financial and economic success. Added to this, the enterprise of the Scots and the innate wealth of the entire area has created one of the UK's truly great cities. The intriguing combination of old money and new talent against a background of industrial greatness means that Glasgow is bursting with potential.

Shipbuilding and heavy engineering has gradually been replaced by a modern mixed economy, supported by public and private investment and a flexible workforce. Glasgow's economy is now dominated by the service sector yet it still retains a strong link to the manufacturing sector with strengths in engineering, food and drink and printing, among others, as well as new growth sectors such as software and bio-technology.

Location

Glasgow is situated in south west Scotland and combines the energy and sophistication of one of Europe's greatest international cities with some of Scotland's famous, spectacular scenery.

From England, the M74 motorway - a continuation of the M8 that goes right into the city - reaches Glasgow and allows quick, easy access to the entire region.

Glasgow Airport is located 8 miles west of Glasgow city centre. Currently Glasgow airport is the busiest of Scotland's three main airports with over 8.7 million passengers a year, served by 50 airlines and 100 destinations.
